EMS Energy Institute faculty and students receive awards

Several faculty and students affiliated with the EMS Energy Institute received awards at three recent events held at University Park in recognition of their accomplishments over the past year.

The 2008 Wilson Banquet & Awards Presentation was held on April 27 to recognize student achievement, faculty mentoring, faculty commitments to service, and excellence in research and teaching. The Department of Energy and Mineral Engineering Awards Banquet took place on April 25 to honor the outstanding achievements of EME students and alumni over the past year. Earlier in the month, the Commission for Women held its Second Annual Awards Luncheon on April 11 to award distinguished and accomplished women at the University.
